ECONOMIC IMPACT

THE PORT AND ITS TENANTS IMPACT THE MADISON COUNTY, IL ECONOMY BY PROVIDING GOODS AND SERVICES, EMPLOYING WORKERS, PURCHASING FROM LOCAL SUPPLIERS AND MAKING CAPITAL INVESTMENTS.

America's Central Port is home to more than 70 tenants who employ nearly 800 workers. Each year, the Port and its tenants make business purchases and capital investments that benefit local businesses. These jobs, payroll expenditures, purchases, and investments have a three-part impact on the local economy – a direct impact, an indirect impact, and an induced impact.

In total, the Port District and its tenants have an estimated net annual impact of $282,480,135 on the Madison County economy.

RIVER COMMERCE

AMERICA'S CENTRAL PORT IS STRATEGICALLY LOCATED IN THE HEART OF THE U.S. AND AT THE CONFLUENCE OF THREE MAJOR RIVERS: THE MISSISSIPPI, MISSOURI, AND ILLINOIS.

The Port District's North Harbor is the most northerly ice-free port on the Mississippi River, and the Port's South Harbor (currently under construction) will be the river's most northerly lock-free port.

Port District operators service over 2,500 barges and more than 2.5 million tons of fertilizer, steel, agricultural commodities, and petroleum products each year.
